What is a 'Top-up' course?

A 1-day course designed as an extension to our Dangerous Goods by Air (Certificate or Revalidation) course to provide the student with the additional knowledge required to deal with the requirements for sending dangerous goods by road.

Who is eligible for 'Top-up' training?

Any student who holds a current Dangerous Goods by Air certificate issued by TrainingTeam or, if this course is being used as refresher training, any student who has previously successfully completed a full Dangerous Goods by Road course. Certificates will be valid for 2 years.

Dangerous Goods by Road Refresher Training - £315 + vat

ADR Chapter 1.3, p1.3.3 also requires that "The training shall be periodically supplemented with refresher training to take account of changes in regulations." Holders of a valid DG by Road Certificate may attend the full 3-day course at a reduced rate. Alternatively, if you are a regular user of the ADR Regulations, you can attend the 1-day top-up course as refresher training. It is suggested that revalidation training should take place at approximately 2-yearly intervals.

Multimodal Dangerous Goods (Air, Road & Sea) Courses - £735 + vat

You can now gain qualifications in the three principle modes of transport over a 5-day period! Check our website for more information
